Bond Buyers Get Reserved Seats At Infantry Show

Bond buyers will get reserved seats for the "Here's Your Infantry" show at Reilly stadium next Thursday night.

City Chairman R. S. McCulloch of the Seventh War Loan drive has reserved 2,000 seats in the stadium for purchasers between June 17 and 21. Half of these will be held for a large delegation from East Liverpool and other county communities.

Fire Chief Vincent Malloy was the first to qualify under this plan.

He bought a bond yesterday and was advised that he was the first to get a reserved seat.

Question Suspect In 'Slots' Slaying

CLEVELAND, June 16—Coroner S. R. Gerber today reopened an inquiry into the shooting slaying of Nathan Weisenberg last Feb. 23 "to hear part of the testimony" of witness, James Licavoli, 41, apprehended yesterday at North Randall race track.

The coroner said the inquiry would be continued at a later date and Licavoli, whose bond was placed at $25,000, would be held meanwhile.

Police reported Licavoli has been sought since Weisenberg was slain in his automobile in suburban Cleveland Heights, the suspect he was connected with a game machine business competing with Weisenberg, termed a slot machine operator.

Licavoli was quoted by Deputy Sheriff Mason Nichols, one of the arresting officers, as saying he had been "spending a lot of time around Cleveland, Youngstown and Warren."

Farm Wages In Nation Now At Highest Level

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Farm wages in the United States have reached a new high record and now are nearly double three years ago.

The Bureau of Agricultural Economics reported today that monthly rates on June 1 averaged $81.28 with board and $93.10 without board. Daily wages averaged $3.55 with board and $4.16 without. All were record highs except wages per day with board which were exceeded slightly in October, 1944.

Farm employment June 1 totaled 10,394,000 persons—seasonally higher than on May 1 but 291,000 under June 1, 1944.

SOLONS STUDY TAX REVISION

Congress Expected To Act Quickly On Program To Aid Business

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Plans were laid today to speed through Congress a tax revision program designed to improve the cash position of business and industry by $5,000,000,000 during reconversion.

Chairman Doughton (D., N. C.) of the house ways and means committee announced he will introduce the business-aid tax bill Monday.

Rep. Knutson (R., Minn.), Republican leader of the tax-framing committee, predicted hearings can be completed and the bill passed by the house within a week or 10 days.

The measure proposes no material reduction in ultimate tax burdens, but is intended to speed postwar payments on rebates and credits due industry. This would make billions of dollars available for reconversion.

No change in either the individual or corporation income tax rate is contemplated.

Doughton's bill will embody recommendations made jointly May 19 by the senate-house postwar tax committee and the Treasury department, providing:

1. An increase in the excess-profits tax specific exemption from $10,000 to $25,000, effective with the year beginning in 1946. This would add $169,000,000 to the cash balances of corporations.
2. That the postwar credit of 10 per cent of the 95 per cent excess profits tax be taken currently with respect to tax liability of 1944 and subsequent years, leaving with the corporations $330,000,000 due in 1945 and $710,000,000 due in 1946.
3. An advance to Jan. 1, 1946, in the maturity date of outstanding excess-profits tax postwar refund bonds, making quickly available to corporations $1,300,000,000 not otherwise due in two to four years.
4. A speed-up of refunds resulting from carry-backs of net operating losses and of unused excess-profits credits, amounting to $1,000,000,000 and not otherwise due until 1947 to 1950.
5. A hastening in refunds resulting from the recomputation of deductions for amortization of emergency facilities. This would result in refunds in 1944 and 1945 of about $1,700,000,000. Without specific legislation, these refunds would be made under an indefinite period.

QUIZ RIBBENTROP AT EISENHOWER'S EUROPEAN OFFICE

BY DANIEL DE LUCE

MONTGOMERY'S HEADQUARTERS, Germany, June 16.—Captured Nazi Foreign Minister Joachim Von Ribbentrop was reported to be under questioning today at Gen. Eisenhower's headquarters at Frankfurt-On-the-Main.

The supreme command's most skilled examiners were said to have been assigned to try to pry loose some of the state secrets known to the 52-year-old former Reich ambassador to London who was reputed to have convinced Hitler on his return in 1938 Britain would not intervene when Poland was invaded.

Officially, Ribbentrop left Luxembourg airdrop here for an unidentified destination "somewhere in Europe" yesterday after being arrested in Hamburg Thursday with an attractive brunette divorcee in whose apartment he boarded under the name of "Herr Riese."

By telephone from Hamburg, Lt. J. B. Adam of Paisley, Scotland, told his detail of Belgian and two British sergeants arrested Ribbentrop. He said:

Spoke In Good English

"We called at a very unpretentious block of flats about 9 a. m. and knocked on the door of the top floor, but getting no answer we nearly had decided to break it down when a lady in a dressing gown appeared. She was dark-haired and very attractive, and we learned later she was 35 and divorced. We brushed her aside, saying we'd come in and search."

The Belgian discovered Ribbentrop, shook him and woke him. Lt. Adams said "we searched him from top to bottom" but they did not discover the taped on poison phial which medical examination at

CARL M'CAVE DIES IN ACTION

Washingtonville Marine, Former Football Star, Killed In Pacific

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert DeJane of Washingtonville received word from the War department Friday afternoon that their son, Marine Corp. Carl "Chesty" McCave, 19, was killed in combat on June 10, in the South Pacific.

He is believed to have died on Okinawa.

He entered the service June 27, 1943, and trained at Parris Island, S. C. He left Dec. 26, 1944, for overseas, with the Forest fighting squadron.

He was born in Salem Dec. 29, 1925, and had spent most of his life in Washingtonville.

Graduating from Leetonia High school in '43, he was president of his class in his Senior year. He was captain of the football team and a member of the student council.

Besides his parents he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Betty Burlingame, of Columbus.

Mrs. DeJane received a letter from her son, the first in 10 weeks, a few hours after she was advised of his death.

Only A Few Of Once-Mighty German Industries Operating

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, June 16.—German industry, twice the arsenal of aggression, is almost non-existent today as the Allies await determination of how it can come to life safely without once again endangering world peace.

Some German plants—several hundred in number, have been permitted to reopen for production which the military government considers essential, but present Allied regulations permit German plants to operate only if their products are wanted by the Allied armies or if production is essential to maintain a minimum standard of life for the German civilian population.

The management of the Krupp works, steel and munitions manufacturing organization, has submitted a request to resume production, without stating what it wanted to produce. The request said production was necessary for the reconstruction of Germany. The application was returned for more details.

Officers of Lt. Gen. Leonard T. Gerow's U. S. 15th army—the unit which by virtue of its occupation of the Saar and Rhine valleys will be among the 250 representatives of 72 eastern Ohio Lutheran churches attending a young people's conference at Canton Sunday.

Rev. Carl Driscoll of Columbus, director of religious education and young people's activities of the Ohio synod, will be principal speaker.

8,106 COUNTY MEN INDUCTED INTO SERVICE

Salem Board Has Furnished About Third; 1,167 Given Discharges

Columbiana county has furnished 8,106 men to the armed forces through Selective Service channels and 1,167 men have been discharged up to June 1 from this county. It was announced today by Ohio draft officials in Columbus.

With three boards in Columbiana county making up the total, it is estimated that the Salem board furnished more than one-third of that figure. Salem is the second largest district in the county, East Liverpool being the largest and Lisbon the smallest.

25,496 From Mahoning

Stark county supplied 21,568 servicemen and has had 2,641 discharged. Other neighboring counties: Mahoning, 25,496 inducted, 3,127 discharged; Trumbull, 13,400 inducted, 1,748 discharged; Carroll, 1,404 inducted, 437 discharged.

Metropolitan Cuyahoga county has furnished 111,233 men for the nation's armed forces through Selective Service induction and enlistment.

The list was made public by Col. C. W. Goble, state director, to assist communities in planning for their work loads during the program of redeployment of veterans from the fighting fronts.

The tabulation also includes the number of fighting men discharged from service until June 1. Cuyahoga leads in this classification with 15,841.

Other counties sending more than 10,000 men into service through Selective Service (no figures were given on persons not registered under the draft) are Hamilton, Franklin, Summit, Lucas, Montgomery, Mahoning, Stark, Trumbull, Butler and Lorain.

16,553 U. S. Bataan Heroes Still Held

MANILA, P. I., June 16.—Only 1,447 men of more than 18,000 American and Navy personnel captured by the Japanese on Bataan and Corregidor have been liberated, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters disclosed today.

Another 3,260, who made the "Death March" or were captured on "The Rock," have been officially reported dead. A large majority of the 13,000 unaccounted for are believed to be held in prison camps in Japan, China and Formosa.

The recovered personnel branch of the adjutant general's office, Army Forces of the Pacific, reported many men carried as missing in action actually surrendered to the Japanese. They were taken to Camp O'Donnell where many, ill with malaria and dysentery, died before they were registered as prisoners of war.

Many prisoners were shipped to labor camps in northern Japan and presumably are clearing debris from the empire's burned out cities. Others were sent to work on Yokohama docks or in Mukden munitions works.

Bilibid, which served as the staging point for shipping prisoners from the Philippines, saw at least 10,000 enlisted men and nearly 2,000 officers marked for shipment to the Orient.

When the Yanks came back to the Philippines they liberated nearly 25,000 military and civilian prisoners confined in Cabanatuan, Santo Tomas and Los Baños. Among them were 5,844 American nationals.

Marines Open Final Assault With Tank Aid

By ROBBIN COONS

GUAM, June 16.—American soldiers and Marines fought forward behind flamethrowing tanks on the southern Okinawa plateau today in a campaign which Lt. Gen. Simon B. Buckner, Jr., said should secure the entire island within a week.

Late frontline dispatches estimated the possibly 10,000 remaining Japanese now were compressed into an eight-square-mile area.

Buckner's Tenth army spearhead in the center and at both ends of the three-mile-long line against resistance that still was ferocious despite the enemy's great casualties and the fact that many of the defenders were service troops or Okinawan conscripts.

In the center, the 96th Infantry division, commanded by Maj. Gen. James L. Bradley, completed the capture yesterday of 500-foot-high Yaeju hill, which the troops call "The Big Apple," and then swung westward and attacked Yuza hill with tanks to knock out positions from which the Japanese were heavily harassing the first Marine division flank.

Robert Geiger, Associated Press correspondent writing from the top of Yaeju hill, said the line already had advanced a half-mile beyond the peak.

Maj. Gen. Pedro A. Del Valle's First Marines, a mile and a half westward on Kunishi ridge, consolidated their hold despite fire from the Japanese on Yuza hill and sent patrols ahead of their lines.

Flanking Drive Underway

The Seventh Infantry division under Maj. Gen. Archibald V. Arnold was pressing a flanking drive against the last two hills remaining in Japanese hands in the eastern sector.

After advances of 700 yards, the 32nd Infantry regiment of the Seventh division virtually completed occupation of the town of Nakaza and advanced southwest of the town toward hill 115 while the 17th regiment drove towards hill 153 on the west.

The Japanese were making use of the difficult terrain and had to be blasted and burned out individually by flamethrowing tanks.

The tanks were giving a good account of themselves, while American warships, field guns and planes hammered away steadily at the enemy's death-stand positions across the southernmost tip of Okinawa.

Behind the American lines—the Sixth Marine division and 77th Infantry division—were clearing out isolated Japanese.

Gen. Buckner, told correspondents: "I can't see this thing lasting a week longer."

The campaign, which began with American landings on the Okinawa west coast on April 1, has overcome the strongest Japanese positions yet encountered in the war and has killed 12 Japanese for every American slain, Buckner declared. Latest estimates of Japanese dead exceed 70,000.

REVEAL HOW SUBS CLOSED U. S. PORTS

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Mines planted by German submarines outside principal east coast ports took such a heavy toll in shipping in 1942 and 1943 the ports were forced to close for days at a time.

The Navy related yesterday the ports, including New York's, had to be closed to ocean traffic while mines were cleared from harbor channels.

Other ports similarly bottled up for brief periods included Norfolk and Newport News, Va., Baltimore, Md., Jacksonville, Fla., Charleston, S. C., and Wilmington, Del.

Ohio Coal Output For Quarter Shows Drop

Strip mining produced 2,654,777 tons in the first quarter of 1945 against 2,185,625 in 1944. Fire clay mines produced 23.7 per cent less last year than in 1943. Limestone quarries also reported a drop in production.

Diplomatic Backseat Driving

As the apparent result of finding out where difficulties existed and taking steps to settle them, relations among the United States, Soviet Russia and Great Britain seem to be easier.

If this appearance of closer understanding should be confirmed when the heads of the three powers meet for further discussions and if closer understanding should be carried into the formal peace conference expected to follow their discussions, the omen for cooperative security would be almost as bright as optimists hoped it might be at this stage.

The optimists, it now appears, became preoccupied with cooperation, while failing to realize that security requirements would have to be satisfied in the meantime. When Russia proceeded to look after its security, pending the outcome of negotiations at San Francisco and the convening of an official peace conference, its acts were interpreted as affronts to cooperation. As the Russians saw them, on the other hand, they were things that had to be done while the terms of cooperation were being decided upon. To the extent that the criticized acts seemed to be contrary to understandings reached at Yalta, the Russians could explain the discrepancies as misunderstandings.

It is imperative that continued efforts to promote cooperation be given the benefit of faith in their outcome. Cooperative security is a great experiment; it must be performed by trial and error. Its participants will need more forbearance than nations ever have been blessed with in their joint undertakings.

As Americans, we have been quick, perhaps too quick, to see the beam in the eyes of our Allies in this great undertaking and to ignore the mote in our own. We have laid ourselves open to the same charge made against the United States after World War I—that it is guilty of backseat driving. Lacking a clear policy and positive intentions of our own, especially with regard to some of the most difficult decisions being made by our Allies, Americans have moralized and criticized from the sidelines. Then, when the patience of their subjects was worn thin, they have taken affront at rebuttals to their second guesses.

Perhaps this phase now is being outgrown. Perhaps comparable shortcomings will become similarly evident to other countries. A tremendous and difficult thing is being attempted. It will require a vastly improved technique of international understanding. If it could be done without improvement, there could have been cooperative security after 1918, or after the Napoleonic wars, when men had the vision of cooperative security, yet lacked the means of converting their dream into practice.

London To Abilene

No gesture of appreciation for the American military effort in Europe has been appreciated so much as the honors bestowed on Gen. Eisenhower by Russia and Great Britain.

It is understood, of course, that these are symbolic gestures—that Gen. Eisenhower is the personal recipient of gratitude owing to all the members of the American forces and the citizens they represent. He has accepted them in that spirit.

It needs to be further understood that Gen. Eisenhower himself, by a circumstance of birth and rearing, is a symbol. He was born in Texas, reared in Kansas and destined to be the supreme commander of a polyglot military force pitted against a combination of Occidentals and Orientals bidding for mastery of the world. The distance from Abilene, Kan., to London is no farther now than the distance from Abilene to Tokyo, or from Tokyo to London. Gen. Eisenhower is a symbol of a world shrinking so rapidly in all its conceptions of space and time that the fate of London, Tokyo, Washington, Moscow, Beirut, Bombay, Vladivostok—and Abilene—is shared in common. Gen. Eisenhower, coordinating the fighting power of the western Allies in a world war, is as perfect a symbol of the age we are living in as could be found.

The Details Are Interesting

One of the genuinely important documents of World War II is the report on shipping and personnel losses in the battle of the Atlantic. Its details are interesting. Its theme is overwhelming.

The theme, of course, is that the United States, contrary to the best judgment of the best military minds of Germany and Japan and in the face of serious doubts in other quarters, was able to deliver a major fighting force in Europe and Africa, deliver mountains of supplies to these forces and to the forces of its Allies, simultaneously fight a major war against the world's third strongest naval power in the Pacific and come out of the ordeal with losses so relatively light that at this stage in the war they are of no military consequence. Military men here and abroad will study the figures for many years to come. They constitute a major element in all future military possibilities and probabilities—the demonstrated ability of the United States to back up its convictions with military power at any point on the face of the earth.

The Stars Say

For Sunday, June 17.

SUNDAY'S horoscope shows that while important issues of expansive and significant scope may come up for consideration, yet there are many factors of diverse, complicating or disappointing situations to be met. It may be difficult to renew contacts or arrive at pleasant and happy or profitable decisions, since there are hints of trickery or false occurrences making for loss, friction and disagreement. Be wise.

Those whose birthday it is, although confronted by a promising opening for gain, advancement, promotion or some definite prospect of attaining cherished goals or important ambitions of scope and gratification, may find opposition, trickery, fraud and misconstruction, entailing loss, not only in funds but in energies, prestige and in personal happiness and peace of mind. Be alert to fraud, sign papers cautiously and refrain from false moves or overbearing conduct.

A child born on this day may have high ambitions and efficiency to attain them, with honors and pleasant personal reactions, but may be undermined by trickery, fraud or sinister betrayal or misunderstanding.

For Monday, June 18.

MONDAY'S astrological forecast is for a rather fortunate turn in public affairs, with dramatic and happy culminations or celebrations of a community or fraternal nature, yet there are signs of setbacks, near antagonisms, sinister attacks or other under-lying situations to vanquish. It is urged that all sense of obligation and responsibility, justice and duty of a private quality, be strictly adhered to and enforced prudently.

Those whose birthday it is may enjoy some public approval and honor, with celebrations and dramatic events, yet be confronted by obstacles, delays, sinister and underhanded matters to try the temper and test the soul. In all connections, observe a sense of duty, obligations and be just and fair in all needful decisions, personal and business.

A child born on this day may have many trials and obstacles in life yet enjoy honors and public support and confidence.

What Government For Germany?

By James Thrasher

The Germans are unsuited and opposed to democracy, says Pastor Martin Niemöller. "The greatest shortcoming of the Weimar Republic," he explains, "was that it never could impose authority on the German people, which longed for such authority."

Pastor Niemöller knows what he is talking about. And history bears him out. Germany's brief and restless interlude of democracy found most of the people backing one or another faction seeking absolute power. Few wanted the sickly republic, or defended it. They'd probably do as badly again. So what will be Germany's future government?

There isn't much choice. Perhaps a communist dictatorship or, as former Ambassador James Girard suggests, a British-type monarchy.

The latter would impose on the Germans the onerous responsibility of parliamentary self-government. It might work, though, by giving them a figurehead of authority and a certain amount of pomp which, as Mr. Girard points out, might counteract their former adulation of the military.

But such an arrangement would scarcely please Russia any more than a communist Germany would please Britain. Whatever the solution, it will inevitably be preceded by more headaches for the conquering Allies who, without any desire to coddle or please the Germans, must seek for them a government that will provide a minimum of unrest and potential trouble which would upset further the peace of Europe and the world.

Doughfoot, They Call You...

By JAMES THRASHER

WHAT do you do in the infantry? You march, you march, you march.

That's what the song says, but that isn't all. You march, sure. You also run and duck and crawl. You spend a lot of time on your feet. And you spend a lot of time on your belly, waiting, while the shells and machine gun fire and snipers' bullets fly over your head—if you're lucky.

You live pretty close to the earth in the infantry. You sleep on it. You get it in your mouth and hair. You accumulate a good bit of it on your person and carry it with you. Doughfoot, they call you.

THE going is slow in the infantry. While the Navy and Air Forces are measuring their advances and maneuvers in hundreds of thousands of miles, you're fighting for yards, and sometimes taking weeks to win them.

But there's one thing about the infantry. No matter how far and fast the ships and planes go, victory always waits for the infantry to get there and win it. In the end it's your finger on the trigger that fires the bullet that wins the war.

WHEN you're in the infantry you know that there would be no road to victory unless the doughfoot marched along in its boots heavy with the mud of Italian mountain roads and German potato fields and New Guinea jungles and the slithering hills of Okinawa.

And the people of the United States know that, too. Which is why they are celebrating Infantry Day today for the thousands of doughfoot who will march the streets of Tokyo, and for the thousands more who died along the road to victory to make that last march possible.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Pelonephritis, A Kidney Disease

BY HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D. IN MANY ways, the treatment of kidney disease has not changed to any great extent in recent years except for one disorder known as pyelonephritis.

This is a condition in which there is inflammation not only of the kidney substance itself, but also of the pelvis of the kidney where the excretions collect before they pass into the bladder. Either one or both of the kidneys may be affected.

Diagnosis Easy Fortunately, in the early stage of pyelonephritis, a diagnosis, as a rule, is easy.

The condition starts suddenly with fever, pain on emptying the bladder, and pain and tenderness in the back over one or both kidneys. An examination of the urine will show not only the presence of large numbers of white blood cells but also, in most instances, of the germs which are causing the trouble.

Once the disease becomes chronic, diagnosis may be more difficult to make.

In these instances, there may be white cells, called pus cells when they are found outside of the blood stream, present in the urine at times, while at other times the urine may appear fairly normal. X-ray of the kidneys may be helpful in diagnosing the disorder in such cases.

Type of Treatment In treating the early or acute stage of pyelonephritis, according to Doctor Hugh Gainsborough of London, the type of treatment employed will depend somewhat on the severity of the condition.

When the disorder starts suddenly with high fever and much toxemia or poisoning, it is often wise merely to put the patient to bed, give him large amounts of fluids, limit the amount of food, and administer some alkaline substance, such as sodium citrate, every three to four hours.

Within three to four days, as a rule, the fever and toxemia will begin to disappear. Then a urinary antiseptic, or a substance which checks the growth of the germs, can be used.

Drugs Used

The drugs ordinarily employed are those of the sulfonamide group, or mandelic acid, depending on what kind of germs is producing the difficulty. The mandelic acid preparations are effective against Bacillus coli and Streptococcus faecalis. Staphylococcus aureus infections are usually treated with sulfathiazole, while any one of the other sulfonamide drugs can be used in infections produced by other types of germs.

Doctor Gainsborough suggests the following rules:

If Bacillus coli only is present, sulfanilamide should be used. When there have been previous attacks and there is infection with several types of germs, sulfamethazine or sulfathiazole should be used. When the trouble is due to Streptococcus faecalis, the mandelic acid preparations should be employed.

Of course, all this treatment must be carried out under the direction of the physician.

Dr. Bundesen will answer letters containing medical questions only through his column. Address your inquiries to Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, 235 E. 45th st., New York City.

Lighted globes of red and clear plastic have been developed which may be clipped to life jackets enabling rescuers to more easily find any flyer downed at sea, or any victim of a shipwreck or sinking. The lights may also be used, unattached, as signal lights.

7TH WAR LOAN DRIVE

YES, despite their long months and years of privation and suffering, those gallant men, just released from filthy Jap Prison Camps, still have their good old fighting spirit. They're itching to get back into the fight and give the Nips a taste of their own medicine.

Let's show them that we're not quitting either! Let's match their spirit with our dollars! Let's make this MIGHTY 7th War Loan the mightiest of them all!

But to come even close to matching their sacrifices, everyone here at home must buy War Bonds until it hurts. Buy double or treble the extra War Bonds you've bought in any previous drive. Remember, this is really two drives in one. In the same period last year, you were asked to subscribe to two War Loans.

So let's go, Americans. Our hard-fighting Soldiers, Sailors and Marines are giving their ALL. The least we can do is to lend our dollars.

Monsieur Joliet was not alone.

Jozef Elsner raised his eyes

I brought you this lady, said Joliet, "and I

Thank you. Thank you.

glancing at Mlle Gladkowska.

Monsieur Joliet closed the door.

older woman by many years when Jozef Elsner had last seen her. Yet there was still a youthful beauty in her features in her figure also. But it was and beauty.
He shook her head. She said no.
didn't run away. She was in Paris because she had been sent to Paris. She had gone to Pleyel et and they had told her where to go. She had asked for Joliet. There was a harshness in her tone when she said his name.
He would tell her nothing. They everybody wanted Frederick and were not permitted to say anything about his whereabouts.
"Then Jozef Elsner added:
naturally. He is very famous,
Mlle Gladkowska—
I knew I wouldn't find him with you knew that. Eh?"
Your letters may have fooled him and Monsieur Chopin.
He may not have fooled me. Not one letter from Frederick!
He's been very busy—very busy.
I have no idea!" Jozef Elsner opened the door. He opened the door he had been holding in his hand. He glanced at it. He said it aside.
Where is Frederick?"
He is in Paris. He's at No.
12—and in very good hands, too.
Mlle Gladkowska is a very gracious lady—
Does he know what is happening at home? Does he ever think of it? Tch, tch— he thinks of nothing else!" Jozef Elsner tried hard to be convincing.
He was sent to Paris on the bare hope—on the bare hope—that he hadn't entirely forgotten.
Then in a quiet voice Mlle.
Gladkowska told Jozef Elsner what was happening in Poland. She told that hundreds of patriots had been jailed and that hundreds had been murdered—some clubbed to death, some hanged, others slashed by sabers. But resistance was not

ARMY READY FOR IMMEDIATE CUTBACKS IN EVENT OF SUDDEN JAP SURRENDER

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 16.—The Army is ready in the event of a sudden Japanese surrender to cut back 90 per cent of its contracts within 48 hours, Director of Man-teriel Howard Bruce said Friday.
At a news conference, in which he reported Army procurement will be pared 32 per cent from two-front war levels during the last eight months of 1945, he said this probably would be the line up for cut backs in the case of a sudden Japanese capitulation:
1—Production of munitions such as big guns, etc., will be halted immediately.
2—Contracts for food and substances of war will be continued since the army must be maintained for a time.
3—Contracts probably will be continued on new products, involving research and development.
The 32 per cent slash in procurement, he said, will amount to $6,100,000,000—from a projected two-front war level of $27,700,000,000 to $21,600,000,000.
End Sherman Tank Output
The Sherman M4 tank, the powerhouses in the Army's drive into Germany, is the hardest hit item in the reduction, with production scheduled to be halted completely within two months.
Light tank production will be cut 76 per cent from March levels by next December but the output of the General Pershing medium tank will be stepped up.
Production of some items, on the other hand, will be given a big boost. The production of incendiary bombs—the biggest weapon against Japan now—will be increased 172 per cent over March levels by next December.
Bruce said that munitions production is now up to satisfactory levels, although there are a few tight spots in other items notably wood, textiles and sheet steel.
Efforts are being made, he said, to substitute aluminum for those three items.
He said a survey indicated that only about 18 communities would be seriously affected by the reductions and that, actually, only one community—Detroit—would be badly affected.
Never store away a garment that is spotted with grease or food stains.

Dateline: Pacific
Correspondents Tell of Interesting Island War Happenings
By RUSSEL BRINES
U. S. FIFTH AIR FORCE BASE, Philippines—One important juncture in the Pacific air war—contact between the Philippines-based Fifth Air Force and the China-based 14th Air Force—came about without fanfare.
There is, in fact, no official date for the event which effectively closed the South China sea and air lanes to Japanese craft.
Philippine-based planes first hit the China coast March 18. Soon the two air forces were paralleling their timed assaults on sea and coast targets from Saigon, French Indo-China, to Nanking.
This cooperation has severed the Japanese empire so completely, say officers, that homeland factories no longer can depend upon war materials from Southeast Asia and the Indies.
Shipping Bag To Date
Their shipping bag since the first of the year: 358 vessels, totaling 266,000 tons, sunk; 69, of 40,650 tons, probably sunk, and 224—155,000 tons—damaged.
Philippine-based planes, attacking usually in daylight, have raided such key Chinese cities as Shanghai, Swatow, Amoy, Foochow, Hongkong and Canton. Their pre-occupation is communications—port facilities in the cities, railroads, highway and river traffic in the interior.
The 14th, operating chiefly at night, strikes at similar objectives. Army and Navy bombers and army fighters of the Fifth Air Force blanket the area between Luzon and Hongkong, on the west, and Nanking on the north.
The 14th parallels these strikes, together with numerous additional targets.
The 13th U. S. Air Force also Philippine-based, sweeps Borneo, the eastern Netherlands East Indies and adjacent targets. The Royal Australian Air Force has taken over the aerial shepherding of such bypassed strongpoints as Rabaul. On the west, British airmen from India have guns drawn on other vital regions of Japan's stolen empire.
Manchuria Next
And since the Fifth and 14th air forces made their unheralded contact, Marianas-based Superfortresses of the 21st Bomber command have launched their great incendiary raids on Japan's cities.
The far-reaching operations present a tremendous combined force but there is more to come.
The air forces released from the European war are yet to be utilized. Officers said bases must be greatly expanded and new ones provided for them.
Another problem is supplies. Air officers are studying plans for extension of raids to Manchuria and its industries, about the only part of the Japanese empire not already under Allied attack. The day Manchuria will be another target area is not far off, these officers say.
Turned into scrap, 833 bureau drawer keys would make enough metal for an army .45-caliber automatic pistol.

LEND A HAND, NEIGHBOR, IN THE biggest clearing job in the world!

The "tank-dozer," one of America's mighty new weapons that has cleared the way for our fighting men from the hedgerows of Normandy to the jungles of Luzon

Let's talk turkey.

Today your country is asking you to buy War Bonds—twice as many as you did last time—in the biggest and most urgent War Loan of all... the Seventh.

Why so much more than you bought before?

Here's why: Up to this time last year there had been two war loans. This time, the Seventh War Loan must do the job of two.

And because the cost of the war is just as great, the money you put into War Bonds in one loan now must equal what you put into two last year.

Sure, a lot of optimistic people are saying, "Look at what's happened in Europe!"

They don't stop to think that regardless of Germany's condition, we at home must keep sending our millions of men in Europe tons and tons of supplies daily.

They don't realize how much money it takes to pay for the care of our wounded... for medicines, for hospital ships, for months of careful nursing and rehabilitation in hundreds of convalescent hospitals.

And in the Pacific—well, we've at last got into position where we can really start harvesting the seeds of victory our fighting men have planted.

We've got to back those men up, right now, by loading more ships with more supplies, more guns, more tanks, more shells, more food than ever went across that broad ocean before.

That's why your country is asking that you back up our soldiers and sailors, among them millions of farm boys, who are fighting and dying far from their homes and fields... back them up by buying twice as many bonds as you did before.

WAR BONDS PAY OFF IN THESE 7 WAYS:

- 1 The same Government security backs your War Bonds as backs the actual dollars you put into them.
- 2 You get $100 at maturity for every $75 loaned now.

Salem News Moves Into First As Leetonia Downs Oils 2-0

Leaders Trim Recreation 3-0 As "Lefty" Herrold's Pitching Marks Other Fray

Flashing big league hurling, Class A softball at Centennial park last night saw the Salem News take a momentary hold on first place by dropping the Recreation 3-0 as Leetonia, behind near-perfect tossing by Don "Lefty" Herrold, white-washed the Sinclairs 2-0 to step into a tie with the Recs for third place.

"Chet" Brautigam of The News, Herrold of Leetonia, and "Mutt" Schaeffer of the Oilers threw air-tight games, but Schaeffer's three-hit pitching was not quite equal to Herrold's two-hitter.

The News, facing a somewhat player-shy Recreation, was unable to touch the offerings of Jim Primm for three innings, but cashed in on four hits and a walk in the fourth when Ralph "Sarge" Gregg replaced Primm to garner all their runs.

Brautigam limited the "Old Timers" to five scattered hits and allowed no runner to reach third. He walked none. Primm fanned two and walked no one in three innings while Gregg issued a free pass and fanned none. The News tagged Primm and Gregg for four hits each.

The News runs came when Frank Tarr, who got out with three yesterday led off with a single in the first. Glenn Couchie rapped out a second one bigger and Fred Cope did likewise to score Tarr. Bill Fisher walked, leading the bases and both Darrel Rosenberg and Ty Schwartz were safe on fielder's choices when Shorty Barton made the put-outs with throws to the plate.

Chet Brautigam then singled a high one to right field and Fisher and Rosenberg scored, making the total. The News failed to threaten after that and the Recs were held well in check.

Bang-up games were turned in by two News infielders, Third Sacker Bob Miller, who clubbed two for three, and Orrie "Hoss" Wright, who dug some beautiful ones from the dirt at his first base position.

The Sinclairs found themselves out-hit by just one safety, but the Boosters made good use of five walks issued by Mutt Schaeffer.

The first Leetonia run came in the second inning when Third Baseman Pat Mancuso, one of the loop's top hot corner men, teed off as lead off man for his second round tripper of the year. He now steps into a tie with Vince Moore of the Rec for the most homers.

The other Boosters tally was marked up in the fourth. Mike Mancuso walked to lead off and his brother, Pat, sacrificed him to second with a nice bunt.

Left Fielder Don Frederick struck out but Larry Duco made it to first on an error, Mancuso going over with the second and final run.

Sinclair's roving shortstop, Eddie Bosick, turned in another beautiful peg from center field in the last half of the sixth to cut off another Leetonia run at the plate.

With the racks loaded and one away, Pat Mancuso lined out to Bosick, who threw in a perfect strike to catch Sam Stumpo as he attempted to score after the catch. Bosick turned the same trick to save the day against Mullins two weeks ago. His arm is one of the best displayed among the outfielders in Class A this season.

Harrold was in form last night, allowing but two hits, striking out one man and walking only one. Schaeffer proved hard to tag, as Leetonia got but three hits, but he issued five free passes. He struck out seven men, however.

PITTSBURGH DOING IT THE HARD WAY

Working On Philosophy
That to Be Champ You
Must Beat the Champ

By JACK HAND,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Beating the champ has been the time-accepted routine for winning a title and the Pittsburgh Pirates aren't straying from the beaten path in their quest of a first flag since 1927.

In seven meetings with the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals, the Pirates have triumphed five times, picking up where they left off last fall when they beat the Red Birds nine times and tied once in their last 10 clashes.

Bob Elliott, who is playing inspired ball since Frankie Fries sent him back to his old outfield job and from third base, broke St. Louis' back last night with a sixth-inning homer that snapped a 2-2 tie and started the Buccos off to a 5-2 victory.

Only a half game separated the Pirates from the onrushing Brooklyn Dodgers, who had stormy going in Boston before they pulled a 9-8 verdict out of the hat in a see-saw opener of a doubleheader. The second game was rained out in the third inning, all tied up 3-3. Frenchy Bordagary came through as a pinch hitter for the second day in a row to drive in the tying runs with a double in the seventh and the Brooks put on the clincher with three runs in the eighth.

Phillies Whip Giants' Ire
Arrival of the Phillies at the Polo Grounds snapped the New York Giants out of their tailspin and Mel Ott gathered his forces together to take a 7-5 edge. New leadoff man, Leon Treadway, was the big star with three hits, including a three-run homer, and four runs batted in.

Chicago got super-duper pitching from Claude Passeau and Hy Vandenberg to sweep a doubleheader from Cincinnati, 8-1 and 3-0. Passeau allowed six hits in the opener but Vandenberg, making his first starting appearance, allowed only one fly hit in hurling the shutout. That was a fluke double by Al Likke in the first inning.

Detroit was idle in the American when their night game in Chicago was washed out but their lead was stretched to a full game when the New York Yankees bowed to Philadelphia, 4-3.

Boston's Dave Ferriss got back on the win path with a 14-inning 6-5 edge over Washington in the first of two. Johnny Niggeling held the hill for 13 innings of the finale against Mike Ryba, Vic Johnson and Francis Barrett but got nothing better than a 4-4 draw when the 12:50 curfew intervened.

Cleveland spoiled the St. Louis Browns' first home appearance since May 20 when Lou Boudreau blasted three hits, including a two-run homer, to help his Tribe to a 5-2 triumph. Allie Reynolds took the win over Weldon West.

Salem Athletics Win 7-4 In Game At Ravenna Field

The Salem Athletics last night journeyed to Ravenna and came home with their fifth victory in seven starts, 7-4, over the Kent Twin Coach

Red Allison did the hurling job for Salem, holding the Coachers to eight hits and keeping them well enough spaced to avoid any serious damage. Kent used three hurlers, and, all told, they gave up seven free passes and fanned six Salemites. Allison fanned seven and walked three.

Salem's tallying with the aid of four walks in the second inning. Jim Simpson, Al Standley walked and Al Carlos sacrificed them further around.

Steve Cibula, still clubbing them hard and far, lined a single to bring in two of the four Salem runs. Dan Kenst and Allison then walked and Batty Morrison batted away for a single and the balance.

In the next frame Salem scored twice again. Simpson again walked, Standley was out, and Carlos singled. Their Cibula laid out another triple, scoring both runs.

The final Salem run came in the sixth when Simpson's single scored Allison, who had gotten on because of an error.

Kent was able to tally in the third and seventh frames. In the No. 3 slot, after two men were out, Secondbaseman Linneen tripled and scored when Teammate Delene singled. Dilereto then doubled, scoring Delene with the other marker.

In the seventh, Dilereto singled to start things after Salem had walked. A triple by Enginger then scored both men with the final two runs for the losers.

His counsel appeared in court with him and the hearing was continued to June 29. Kistler, who has been in Massillon State hospital for one month's observation, was ordered by the court to be brought from the hospital to the county jail, and a hearing on his case will be set for a future date.

Also heard in court was the case of James Vaughn, 18, of near Salem, who was arrested on an assault charge. Vaughn has been confined in the Massillon State hospital for one month's observation and Sheriff Hayes was ordered by the court today to bring him from the hospital to the county jail. A future date will be set for his hearing in court.

Tenants Should Consult OPA On Eviction Notices

Tenants who have received notices that an eviction action is being started against them should consult the OPA rent office, Samuel M. Noyes, area rent director, said today.

"Simply because a copy of the notice of eviction has been mailed to OPA, or when the occupant receives the OPA form which certifies that the landlord is authorized to take eviction action, is no reason for the tenant to hurriedly collect his belongings and move out," Noyes said.

"OPA does not have the power to order evictions. Only local courts may do that. If OPA believes that an eviction action is being taken in bad faith, it may appear as a friend of the court to oppose the eviction," the area rent director continued.

Unnecessary and unwarranted evictions present a threat to rent control and to war production. For that reason the rent office is prepared to offer landlords and tenants every assistance within the law to determine their rights, the official said.

LEAVES FROM A WAR CORRESPONDENT'S NOTEBOOK

PARIS—It may be sad news for the French, but American soldiers awaiting redeployment or assignment to the occupation forces are not going to be much help in rebuilding France's important tourist industry.

Army finance figures indicate the boys left their spending clothes at home.

In April, for instance, the average amount of money retained by each GI was 15 per cent. That means a soldier kept about $8 for himself and sent the rest home. Sergeants pocketed about $15.

With prices what they are in France, soldiers on leave confine themselves generally to window shopping. Only an officer can afford $60 for a little blouse to send home. There is a pretty good sale of perfume, which also comes high, and the boys absorb quantities of French wines and beer and cognac and an occasional bottle of champagne. But it does not mean a terrific profit for the French.

Currently the establishments which are the heart of the tourist trade are not the profit makers and are not expected to be when the soldiers come rolling back to leave centers in Paris and on the Riviera.

The hotels, many of which are luxury palaces designed for the tourist trade, and buildings of all types which have been taken for army use, can be checked off as reverse lend-lease. The Army carries its own food, provides its own entertainment, and a soldier can spend a long leave without putting his hand in his pocket.

It is important to France to get back her tourist trade. In the golden days between 200,000 and 250,000 Americans traveled the museum, cathedral and chateau routes and put $100,000,000 annually into French tills.

While the tourists in khaki uniforms go through the museums the bills will be paid by the United States government.

There is one bright note in the picture for the French, however; an American public opinion poll found that a big portion of the adult population of the United States wants a civilian postwar tour of Europe.

headquarters later found hidden between his legs.

Ribbentrop dressed, muttering to himself. He then spoke up to his captors in good English saying, "I know who I am, all right, don't you? I congratulate you. If you had been two days later I would have given myself up voluntarily."

The room held only a few articles of clothing and two bulky envelopes containing long hand-written letters to Montgomery and Churchill. "I want to ask you a favor," Ribbentrop said. "You put that envelope addressed to the prime minister inside the one addressed to the field marshal and deliver them intact to your commander."

Then he was led off.
